

Estepona, Malaga, Andalusia, Spain

3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms

The apartment has been changed when the owner bought it off plan and they have added an extra shower room, it also has a larger utility room and kitchen, on the large open terrace they have glassed in part of it so that you have a winter room and the other half of the terrace has been left open to catch the sun, South facing terrace with lovely views across the garden and pool to the sea, very private terrace, lift, large underground parking space and a 30M2 store room, ample parking within the urbanisation for guests, the property has been well maintained throughout with good quality furniture, the property is very light inside because they had extra windows installed when it was being built, great location and an excellent rental property.
